

Gordon Thomas Ward

Rekindle the Wonder!

"BRAVO! HE TOTALLY AMAZED ME!" ~ Tom Martin, Rutherford Hall

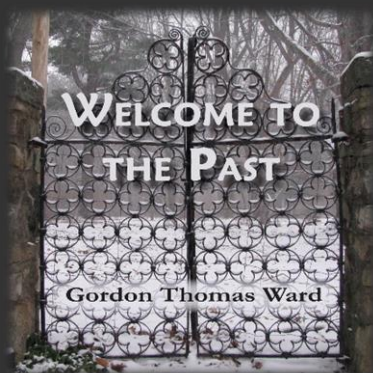

"HIS MUSIC TAKES PEOPLE ON AN UNFORGETTABLE JOURNEY." ~ WFMZ

Gordon paints musical portraits that plumb the depths of our emotions and bring the past to life while pointing to a hope-filled future. His listeners travel mystical and historical roads, winding through lush, sonic landscapes filled with seacoasts, ghosts, history, rivers, coffee shop waitresses, and railroad engineers. Employing his experience as a teacher, writer, paranormal investigator, radio host, and storyteller, it's no wonder that his fans often comment on Gordon's knack for establishing an endearing relationship with them through his extraordinary and captivating words and music. His song stylings occupy a space all their own and linger in the mind and memory like cherished dreams. At the end of Gordon's performances, audiences leave inspired!

His songs have led him to work with notable musicians such as Eric Troyer (The Orchestra (ELO), John Lennon, Billy Joel), William J. Hall (Frostwater and Pete Seeger), and Carolann Solebello (Red Molly and No Fuss and Feathers), share the stage with Christine Lavin and the duo Nalani & Sarina, and be selected by The Boxcar Lilies – one of his favorite Americana bands – to open for them.
